

2016 Fall/Winter International Women's Football Leagues Addendum

Female Gridiron League of Queensland (FGLQ) – 2016 Season

The FGLQ featured seven teams in their fifth season of play, and the Gold Coast Stingrays once again made league history by advancing to their fourth straight championship game. The Stingrays became the first team in FGLQ history to win consecutive titles, and their third overall, by triumphing over the Logan City Jets in Summerbowl V.

Championship game result: Gold Coast Stingrays 34, Logan City Jets 22

Gridiron Victoria Women's League (GVWL) – 2016 Season

The GVWL switched to a spring schedule for its fourth season, and it was yet another season of heartbreak for the Northern Lady Raiders. For the second straight year, the Lady Raiders blew through the regular season undefeated before being upset in the playoffs, this time in a defensive contest in the league semifinals by the Melbourne Uni Chargers. The Geelong Buccaneers took advantage, defeating the Chargers in Vic Bowl IV for their second consecutive GVWL crown.
