

Western Women's Canadian Football League (WWCFL) – 2014 Season

For the fourth year in a row, the story in the WWCFL was the dominance of the Saskatoon Valkyries. The Valkyries cruised to their fourth straight WWCFL championship in 2014, defeating the Western Conference champion Lethbridge Steel in the title game for the third consecutive time.

Championship game result: Saskatoon Valkyries 53, Lethbridge Steel 0

Western Women's Canadian Football League (WWCFL) – 2015 Season

A new champ is here! The Saskatoon Valkyries' quest for a fifth straight title was derailed in the Prairie Conference championship game. The Regina Riot, the only team to defeat the Valkyries in their half-decade of existence, topped Saskatoon in a thrilling contest, 31-29. With the four-time champs vanquished, the Riot blew out the Edmonton Storm for the 2015 WWCFL title, becoming the first non-Saskatoon team to capture the women's football championship of Western Canada.

Championship game result: Regina Riot 53, Edmonton Storm 6
